

The Assembly for the Teaching of English Grammar (ATEG)

In partnership with the Connecticut Writing Project (an affiliate of the National Writing Project)

Is Pleased to Offer:

A 15-Hour Course in Dynamic Grammar Instruction

July 11 and 12, 2007

Fairfield University

Fairfield, Connecticut

Oak Room, Barone Conference Center

8:30-4:30

map and directions: <http://www.fairfield.edu.x1147.xml>

Session Topics:

- I. Sentence Patterns for Beginners
- II. Grammar Instruction and Brain-Compatible Learning Theory
- III. Grammar Instruction to Improve Writing Skills
- IV. Teaching Grammar Using Visuals and Manipulatives

Contact: Amy Benjamin (914) 474-0294

e-mail: MrsBenj@aol.com

This course qualifies for 1.5 CEU's for Connecticut teachers. Participants must have pre-approval from their Districts. The Connecticut Writing Project will provide certificates of attendance which may be submitted to individual districts for CEU credits, in accordance with District policies. New York teachers, and teachers in other states, may earn similar continuing education credits in accordance with their District policies.

Cost: $200 (includes lunch)

Pre-registration required. Space is limited. Registration closes July 3.

Name: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Phone: _(_____)_____

Postal Address: _____

Please include check payable to ATEG in the amount of $200.

Return this form to:

Amy Benjamin
P. O. Box 92
Fishkill, New York 12524